About Prospero

Educated recruitment every step of the way.

Founded in 2000, Prospero Teaching is an award-winning teaching agency with offices throughout the UK, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. We supply staff across Primary, Secondary and SEN settings; from small community schools to large multi-academy trusts.

In the field of teaching recruitment, we have a reputation for offering consistent service and having a deep knowledge of the profession, which is why we are considered the number one education recruitment agency in the UK and Internationally. We have built our reputation on professionalism, ability, honesty and integrity.

Our dedicated teams of candidate managers, compliance officers and in-house training coordinators support all of our teachers, tutors and support staff every step of the way.

We do our utmost to try to integrate candidates into a team – working at a school that suits their personality, skill set and teaching style. For us, it's all about developing a long-term relationship with you, particularly as many of our previous candidates are now our clients. We have built our reputation on professionalism, ability, honesty and integrity and are proud to work with hundreds of schools, globally.

Our Value to Schools and Local Authorities

- Rapid, needs-led response
- Consistently high-quality staffing
- Trusted partner for tuition & transition
- Vetted tutors with SEND & behavioural expertise
- Transparent, accountable systems and communication

Our service offering is comprised of the following three key areas:

- Secondary
- Primary
- SEND

Services We Offer

Delivering staffing solutions and services to the education industry

For over 20 years, Prospero Teaching has been the teaching recruitment agency of choice for thousands of educational institutions across the UK, assisting them on a daily basis with their staffing challenges.

No matter what your staffing requirements are, we can provide the high-quality teaching staff, tutors or support staff you need, across short-term, supply and permanent roles.

Our dedicated teams place qualified candidates in a variety of different roles, including:

- Teaching
- Supply Teaching
- Teaching Assistants
- SEND Specialists
- Cover Supervisors
- Tutors
- Support Staff

✓ We understand that every school is unique. Our consultants work closely with each institution to provide bespoke staffing strategies, ensuring the right match for every role.

✓ Whether you need qualified teachers, experienced support staff, or SEND specialists, our team has the expertise to deliver trusted professionals who make a real impact in the classroom and beyond.

✓ Our thorough vetting process and ongoing support mean that schools can rely on us for consistent, high quality education professionals.

Tailored for Every Stage of Education

Primary

Our Primary Teaching team recruit and place primary teachers in a wide variety of schools. Throughout the process, our dedicated primary consultants will connect you with candidates that match your school and its individual requirements. In addition to daily supply and long-term positions, we recruit permanent candidates and provide regular training and continuing professional development opportunities.

We work with thousands of fantastic primary schools across the UK. Our local knowledge means we can find the perfect candidate to fill your vacancies in Early Years, Key Stage 1, and Key Stage 2.

Special Educational Needs & Disabilities

Here at Prospero Teaching, we are proud of our reputation for matching staff with the best teaching and teaching assistant jobs in SEN and mainstream schools.

We work with Special Schools, Pupil Referral Units, Alternative Provision and Inclusion Departments attached to mainstream schools and independent schools.

We will offer you the candidates to work in an SEN position that suits your schools personality, teaching style and specialisms. Our SEN department at Prospero Teaching has developed a range of courses and training materials that are directly aimed at helping candidates develop as an SEN practitioner.

Tuition & Student Support

Tuition

We are proud to be an approved Tuition Partner on National Tutoring Programme (NTP), working alongside DfE to provide dedicated, experienced and flexible tutors for pupils whose education has been impacted by COVID-19 pandemic across England. Tuition can be in-person or online, delivered as one-to-one or in small groups up to six by Prospero Tutors who are vetted, trained and cleared by our training and compliance teams.

Children Education Services

Children's Education Services (CES) at Prospero teaching delivers individual specialist education programmes of support. We work nationally with young people who are facing difficulty in accessing education. Our staff are high-calibre specialists that are able to support at Primary, Secondary and SEND levels and who share our passion for promoting and supporting the education of pupils.

Why Choose Prospero?

We pride ourselves on being more than just a recruitment agency — we are a long-term partner in your school's success. Our team takes the time to truly understand the unique ethos, culture, and needs of each educational setting we work with, allowing us to offer tailored staffing solutions rather than a one-size-fits-all approach. Whether it's a last-minute cover requirement or a strategic hire for the long term, we approach every placement with the same level of diligence and care.

Our consultants are trained to go beyond CVs — they carefully assess personality, teaching style, and values to ensure candidates are not only qualified but also the right fit for your learning environment. We maintain close communication throughout every step of the process, offering support before, during, and after placement to ensure consistency and satisfaction.

With a nationwide reach and an international recruitment arm, we can provide high-quality staff even in areas that traditionally face recruitment challenges. Our commitment to safeguarding and compliance means you can always expect staff who are fully vetted, DBS checked, and ready to make a positive impact from day one.

At Prospero Teaching, we are driven by a shared passion for education and a belief in the power of great teaching. Every school deserves exceptional staff, and we're here to make that happen — with professionalism, empathy, and a genuine commitment to helping your pupils thrive.

Enhanced Vetting Procedures

As a proud member of the APSCo Compliance+ audit scheme, Prospero Teaching adheres to the highest standard of candidate selection, vetting, safeguarding, training & development and provision & management of teachers and support staff.

All Prospero Teaching recruitment staff are given full training of Safer Recruitment procedures for conducting interviews, performing vetting checks and recruiting for clients.

Prospero Teaching have a number of dedicated staff trained as Designated Safeguarding Officers who are responsible for managing any concerns, should they arise.

Prospero Teaching is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment.

Support We Provide

Recruitment Solutions for Educational Settings

We can support you with a range of recruitment solutions from Teaching Assistants up to senior level positions. The process is as follows:

1

We meet you face to face to take a detailed job brief, set timelines and familiarise ourselves with the environment and culture of your organisation;

2

We advertise and market the role;

3

We source potential candidates including active candidates that we are working with;

4

We carry out the Compliance and Credentialing Process – Meeting candidates face to face and completing detailed interview and checks;

5

We profile and shortlist the candidates for you;

6

We coordinate the job process and prepare the candidates for interview;

7

We consult with you and carry out an offer management process including assessment and checks;

8

After placement we review and follow up with both the client and candidate to ensure satisfaction.

Prospero Learning

We believe that every educator has the potential to be great, and it is our mission to help all educators reach their full potential through both online and face-to-face courses. Prospero Learning is a division of ProsperoTeaching, a leading provider of education staffing solutions, who recruit for EYFS, primary, secondary and SEND schools. We're dedicated to providing candidates with the best training and resources to help them succeed in their role.

Our team is composed of both primary and secondary teachers who bring a wealth of expertise and experience to the table. Our team members are not only experts in their respective fields, but also passionate about education and dedicated to helping other educators excel in their roles.

They use their years of experience and knowledge to write and facilitate courses that are engaging, interactive and relevant to the current education landscape. With the team's diverse background and experience, you can be assured that the courses are tailored to meet the needs of different educators, regardless of their level of experience or subject area.

"I had an excellent experience with Prospero, and I cannot praise my recruiter enough! From the very first interaction, they were extremely honest, professional, and truly invested in finding the right role for me. They went above and beyond to understand my skills, career goals, and preferences, ensuring every opportunity was exactly what I was looking for."

- Prospero Teaching Candidate

"Prospero Teaching is a great agency to work with. The sign up process is quick and efficient and every effort is made to ensure you have support every step of the way. The team take the time to get to know and understand you and what roles would be best for you. Within a few days of being registered I was offered a long term placement. Since then I have had work every day."

- Kim

"After recently being made redundant I knew I wanted a complete career change but didn't know where to start or how to get into being a teaching assistant. I turned to Prospero Teaching who made the whole process feel stress free and made me feel confident into stepping into something I have never done."

- Ash

"I contacted Prospero Teaching about a vacancy for a SEN teaching role, and they promptly replied, offering helpful guidance that facilitated a smooth application process."

- Grish

“Prospero Teaching’s dedication to building long-lasting relationships with both candidates and schools is commendable.”
